

Are You Coming Home Tonight?

Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called.

And they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee. Mk. 10:49

1. Where art thou, wan - d'ring sin - ner? What is thy por - tion to - night?
 2. Lost in a bar - ren des - ert, Dark is the king - dom you roam;
 3. No peace with - in thy bos - om, No last - ing com - fort you know;
 4. Mer - cy is call - ing, sin - ner, Je - sus has suf - ered for thee;

Bound in the fet - ters of Sa - tan, Oh, will you re - turn to the light?
 Sin - ner, there's dan - ger fore - bod - ing, Oh, flee, for there's safe - ty at home.
 Come, then, to love's peace - ful dwell - ing, Where foun - tains of hap - pi - ness flow.
 He'll bring you home to the Fa - ther, Where there is a wel - come so free.

Refrain

Are you com - ing? _____ Are you com - ing? _____ Are you com - ing home to - night?
 home to - night, home to - night,

Are you com - ing? Are you com - ing?

Are you com - ing? _____ Are you com - ing? _____ Are you com - ing home to - night?
 home to - night, home to - night, rit.

Are you com - ing? Are you com - ing?
