

Arise, He Calleth Thee

They call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee...

Jesus said... thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus. Mk. 10:46-52; Lk. 18:35-43

1. Wear - y, lone - ly, sad, for-sak - en, Hum - bled to a sta - tion low, Sat a hope-less blind man
 2. When he heard that it was Je - sus, Who had healed the sin-sick soul, Then he called a - loud for
 3. Paused the Mas - ter for a mo - ment—"Bring him hith - er un - to Me." Some-one ran to bear the
 4. Then as he ap - proached the Mas - ter, Heal - ing vir - tue to re - ceive, Je - sus said, "Thy faith hath beg - ging, By the road to Jer - i - cho. Soon he heard the noise of foot - steps, As of mer - cy, That he, too, might be made whole. But the mul - ti - tude re-buked him, Say - ing mes - sage: "Come, a - rise, He call - eth thee!" Oh, what words of cheer and com - fort! What to - saved thee, Be it as thou dost be - lieve." And the blind man's eyes were o - pened, He had wat - ers roll - ing nigh; For the Gal - i - le - an Pro - phet With the throng was pass - ing by.

 he should si - lent be; Yet he on - ly called more loud - ly, "Have com - pas - sion, Lord, on me!"
 day could sweet - er be To the wea - y, sick, and suf - f'ring—"Come, a - rise, He call - eth thee?"
 proved the prom - ise true; Ye, who still in sick - ness lan - guish, Lo, the Mas - ter calls for you.

Refrain

Then a - rise, He call - eth thee, Sick or suf - f'ring, blind or lame!
 Then a - rise, He gen - tly call - eth thee, Sick or suf - f'ring, blind or lame!

Je - sus healed in Gal - i - lee, He is ev - er - more the same.
 Je - sus healed in Gal - i - lee,