

Everlasting Joy

Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say, Rejoice. Php. 4:4

1. Can the spir - it of a mor - tal Live be - yond the reach of trou - ble?
 2. He who is our great sal - va - tion, And our high and strong mu - ni - tion
 3. I no trou - ble and no sor - row See to - day, nor will I bor - row
 4. To my soul all grace is giv - en, And all gloom a - far is driv - en,
 5. Je - sus bids be joy - ful ev - er; He Him - self, the won-drous Giv - er,

Know - ing not a pain - ful strug - gle, Ev - er joy - ful in the Lord?
 Is to us a full fru - i - tion Of His peace and end - less joy.
 Gloom - y vi - sions for the mor - row; In my Je - sus all is bright.
 Walk - ing in the light of heav - en, All is ev - er -last - ing peace.
 Flows with - in a con - stant riv - er, And my spir - it must re - joice.

Refrain

Glo - ry to _____ my Sav - ior's name! Walk-ing on _____ His ho - ly plane;
 My Sav - ior's name, pre - cious name! His ho - ly plane, ho - ly plain;

A musical score for two voices and piano. The top staff is soprano in G major, 2/4 time, with lyrics: "Noth-ing can my peace dis-turb, Free and hap-py as a bird, Sing-ing joy-ful praise ev-er-more." The bottom staff is basso continuo in G major, 2/4 time, providing harmonic support. The piano part is on the right.
