

God Is Everywhere

*The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. Pr. 15:3
The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth. 2 Chr. 16:9; Jer. 23:24; Heb. 4:13*

1. See, the Lord hath made us by His might-y pow'r, And He watch-es o'er us
2. Noth - ing can we hide from His all - see - ing eye, Wheth-er on the land, or
3. All our words and thoughts are to Him ful - ly known, We shall sure - ly reap the
4. Look down in our hearts, Lord, let us see to - day If there should be in us eve - ry day and hour; This we do re - mem - ber when we kneel in prayer, in the sea or sky; Dark-ness can - not hide us from His bless - ed face, deeds that we have sown; From Thy ho - ly pres - ence we can nev - er flee,

Refrain

God is up in heav - en, God is eve - ry - where.
For His ho - ly pres - ence dwells in eve - ry place. God is eve - ry - where, yes, God is eve - ry - where,
For the day and night are both the same with Thee.
Help us know that Thou art pres - ent eve - ry - where.

God is in the val - ley, God is in the air; God is in the moun - tain,

God is in the sea, An - y - where we may go, there God will be.
