1. God o - pens wide His hand, In this our na - tive land, Year af - ter year;
2. What though the earth may quake, And hills and moun - tains shake, He lives and reigns;
3. That spring-time "shall not cease," And sum - mer yield in - crease, Whilst au - tumn brings
4. To Him who gov - erns all, And notes a "spar - row's fall," All na - tions' King,

From His a - bun - dant store He giv - eth ev - er - more,
The o - ceans ebb and flow, The sea - sons come and go,
From fields the gold - en grain, From or - chards fruits a - gain,
We will from shore to shore, Our lov - ing Lord a - dore,

"Pressed down and run - ning o'er," Our hearts to cheer.
His Word no change can know, His truth re - mains.
Our frail lives to sus - tain, God's choic - est things.
Till "time shall be no more," His prais - es sing.
