

Hear the Cry

A vision appeared to Paul in the night;

There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us. Ac. 16:9

1. O'er the o - cean's roll - ing wa - ters, From an east - ern land to - day,
2. Home and friends to us seem near - er, As we hear their plead - ing cry;
3. "Though your home and friends you cher - ish, Will you not re - gard the cries
4. Go, my broth - er, o'er the o - cean, Leave be - hind all earth - ly dross;

Comes a cry from heath - en daugh - ters, "Save us ere we're lost for aye";
Na - tive land seems e - ven dear - er— Still in tears they moan and sigh;
From the lips of those who per - ish, As they rend the vault - ed skies;
Prove to God thy life's de - vo - tion, Lift the ban - ner of His cross;

Loud we hear their voic - es cry - ing, Borne up - on each float - ing breeze,
"Will not some - one leave his na - tion? You are saved, but we are lost!"
Man - y come with sect con - fu - sion, Who them - selves are in the night,
Je - sus left His home in glo - ry, Died to set the cap - tives free;

For their souls in sin are dy - ing, While we i - dly wait at ease.
Je - sus died for all cre - a - tion— Who will come at an - y cost?
Bring - ing on - ly more de - lu - sion; Who will bring the gos - pel light?"
Go and tell the won - drous sto - ry, Bear the mes - sage o'er the sea.

Refrain

Who will go, oh, who will go, Bear the mes - sage o'er the sea? Oh, who will go?
