

I Will Do My Part

Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. 1 Cor. 10:31

Not too fast

1. It may be lit - tle that I can do, Nor may I have much to say,
2. The work He giv - eth may low - ly be, It may not win man's ap - plause,
3. In vain no ser - vice that love may give, No mat - ter how small it be;
4. In that fair day, when the crowns are brought For those who have faith - ful proved,

But in that lit - tle I mean to be true, And do what I can to - day.
But if I do what He choos - es for me, I know it will help His cause.
In God's re - mem - brance it ev - er shall live To shine in e - ter - ni - ty.
There will be one for each soul that has wrought—For all that have worked and loved.

Refrain

From the depths of my heart I will do my part With a read - y and will - ing hand;

And I will not shirk, I will faith - ful - ly work In the place that my Lord hath planned.
