

If the Light Has Gone Out

If the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched...

Therefore be ye also ready. Mt. 24:42-44 The foolish said... our lamps are gone out. 25:8

Very slowly

1. When the sun of your life has gone down, And the clouds in the west turn to
2. When you come to the end of the way, And life's sto - ry for you has been
3. When the chill winds of death round you steal, And the sweat on your brow's damp and
4. When be - fore judg - ment's bar you shall stand, And the deeds of your life have been gold (turn to gold), End - less death will to you then have come, told (has been told), Oh, how sad all to you will ap - pear cold (damp and cold), What a dread in your life you would feel, told (has been told), Good and e - vil ap - pears, oh, what then,

Refrain
If the light has gone out in your soul. Oh, just think how in death you will feel, With the light grow - ing dim in your soul;

you will feel, in your soul;

Oh, how lone - ly 'twill be, oh, how still! When the light has gone out in your soul.
how still!
