

My Title Clear

Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown. Rev. 3:11

1. I do not ask to live a life of ease, I do not ask for wealth or
2. I do not ask for things too high for me, I do not ask to know the
3. I on - ly ask— this is my on - ly plea— I ask for grace to be a 4. When shad - ows length - en on my path - way here, When eve - ning shades would dim my hon - or, I do not ask to do as I would please; I on - ly ask mor - row, I do not ask that mys - t'ries I may see; I on - ly ask Chris - tian, To live a life of con - stant vic - to - ry; And this I ask vi - sion, I ask for help that I may per - se - vere; And this I ask that when I die My ti - tle may be clear to reign on high. Fine

Refrain
My ti - tle clear, no ques - tions left be - hind, A blame - less rec - ord, strong and cer - tain, That Thou and all who look no dis - pute find; Yes, Lord, I ask D.S. al Fine