

O Love Divine

We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. 1 Jn. 4:16

1. O love di - vine! no soul has e'er Thy won - drous depths ex - plored;
2. O love di - vine, what treas - ures yet With - in thy cof - fers lie!
3. O love di - vine, in thee our souls E - ter - nal pleas - ures find,
4. O love di - vine, 'tis won - der - ful That mor - tals here be - low

O price - less gift! we fain would have Thy rich - es on us poured.
The gold and sil - ver of the earth Would not thy rich - es buy.
Sur - pass - ing all that earth could give, Were all its pow'rs com - bined.
May share thy grace most ex - cel - lent, Thy won - drous pow - er know!

Let mor - tals join with all their might, Let earth and heav - en both u - nite
E'en though the sands up - on the shore Of eve - ry sea should turn to ore
Thy mu - sic sweet we love to sing, Our spir - its e'er to thee would cling,
A - round our hearts for - e'er en - twine, And let thy beau - ties in us shine,

To sing thy praise both day and night—The half can ne'er be told.
Of choic - est met - al, 'twere no more Than naught com - pared to thee.
An of - fring now of praise we bring, In hum - ble sac - ri - fice.
That we may be, O love di - vine, Com - plete - ly lost in thee.
