

Sweet Fellowship

*Ye were called unto the fellowship of... Jesus. 1 Cor. 1:9 If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship. 1 Jn. 1:7
Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. Eph. 5:11; 2 Cor. 6:14*

1. Sweet fel - low - ship u - nites our souls as one, It is the bliss of heav-en now be - gun;
2. The min - gling flow of kin - dred minds and hearts, That on - ly from the fount of true love starts,
3. Un - seen thy beau - ty and un-known thy worth To all who have not yet the Spir - it birth:
4. All hearts where thou dost dwell must be as one, For thou dost flee where strife is but be - gun;

When heart to heart by this blest tie is bound, We seem to stand each day on ho - ly ground.
The sweet-est but most fra - gile gift of grace, Which on - ly with the blood-washed has a place.
Where rank-leth hate and sit - teth lord-ly pride, Thy gen - tle pres - ence doth not there a - bide.
Nor wilt thou show a - gain thy tim-id face Where there may be of wrong or sin a trace.

Refrain

Sweet fel - low-ship with God on high, And with His Son, who came to die,

With all His saints in eve - ry clime— Be this my por - tion all the time.
