

The Great Sacrifice

*Speak unto every feathered fowl... Assemble yourselves, and come... to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you. Eze. 39:17-20
Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; That ye may eat... the flesh of all men. Rev. 19:17-18*

1. God is sweep - ing through the na - tions With an aw - ful, search - ing eye;
2. Je - sus gave His life to pur - chase For Him - self a spot - less bride—
3. To pre - serve her pure and spot - less He must make a sac - ri - fice;
4. See His sword is bathed in heav - en, And the moun - tains strewn with dead;
5. Hear the an - gel loud - ly cry - ing, Stand - ing in the blaz - ing sun;

Eve - ry spot of im - per - fec - tion Much be purged, or hope must die.
All who fear Him and o - bey Him Cleansed be - neath the crim - son tide.
Give to e - vil spir - its sup - per, All who give to sin a place.
All ye birds and beasts as - sem - ble, Lo, a feast for you is spread.
Wake, O man, while time is fly - ing, For the judg - ment has be - gun.

Refrain

God is com - ing, O my broth - er, Can you face the sol - emn day?

All the pure His an - gels gath - er, The de - filed be - come a prey.
