1. To Je - ru - sa - lem the new Come the tried and faith - ful few
2. Of - ten have we heard of thee, Bless - ed cit - y of the free;
3. With thy walls of jas - per bright, Spark - ling in the ra - diant light,
4. On the trees our harps we hung, Zi - on's songs were left un - sung
5. Now we reach the eve - ning light, Robed in shin - ing gar - ments white,

Back to Zi - on's gold - en glo - ry once a - gain; High - est praise our tongues em - ploy,
But our fath - ers sang thy glo - ry far a - way, Teach - ing us that on - ly there,
Bless - ed cit - y of our God, we come to thee; Through thy pearl - y gates a - jar
By the riv - ers sat we weep - ing all the day; Now our harps we tune a - gain,
We re - turn to where the saints of yore have trod; Flee we now from Ba - bel's fall,

With the ev - er - last - ing joy, Now a thou - sand voic - es swell the glad re - frain.
In that world so bright and fair, Could we hope to see thy bless - ed gold - en day.
Come the ran - somed from a - far, Hear a - gain the joy - ful songs of ju - bi - lee.
Sing the ev - er - last - ing strain, Now our mourn - ing, sor - row, sigh - ing flee a - way.
For we've heard the Sav - ior's call To Je - ru - sa - lem the liv - ing Church of God.
