1. We are sow - ing eve - ry mo - ment, Seeds that yield much good, or bad;
2. Let us sow each seed in kind - ness, Pray - ing God the fal - low ground
3. Give us, Lord, much grace and wis - dom, With the count - less seeds we sow;
4. Help us, then, O lov - ing Sav - ior, Bless the pre - cious seeds that fall;

And each one is sure - ly grow - ing, Cheer - ing souls or mak - ing sad;
May be bro - ken up in soft - ness, And the fruits of peace a - bound;
Though we scat - ter some at ran - dom, They may ger - mi - nate and grow;
We will sow in hope of gath - 'ring, In this fi - nal har - vest call;

Let us sow good seeds for Je - sus, In the hearts of fall - en men,
When the heart with sin is heav - y, He will start the flow - ing tear,
Some may fall in crowd - ed plac - es, On the dry, un - yield - ing plain,
And the toil - ers who have min - gled With the seed their anx - ious tears,

Man - y hap - py souls will bless us, And a crown of glo - ry gain.
And the gems of truth from heav - en, Fruit of life e - ter - nal bear.
But, if wa - tered by Thy grac - es, Not a seed is sown in vain.
Will re - turn with shouts, and bring - ing Man - y sheaves in com - ing years.
