

To Know That He Knows

He knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. Job 23:10

1. When my soul is op-pressed with the sor - rows of life, And the tho't of the mor-row a - larms;
2. If my best ef-forts fail, tho' my friends may re-prove, When I sigh for their sol - ace and prayers,
3. Tho' in tri - al I suf - fer, He keeps me con-tent, Sees be - fore me the dan-gers pre - pared;
4. Yes, my fail-ures He knows, and my sighs, and my tears, And the depth of my bit - ter - est woes;

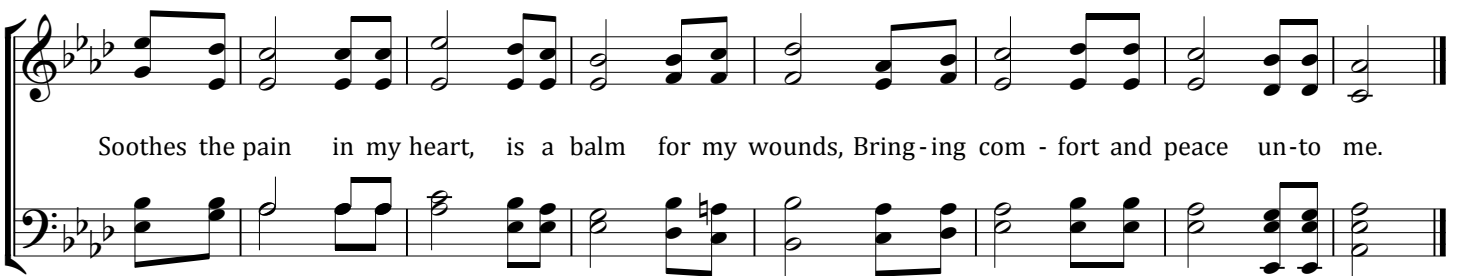

With my care-lad-en heart, then, I flee from the strife, And I weep out my woes in His arms.
It will work for my good, if my Sav - ior I love— He as-sures me He knows and He cares.
And in mer - cy His wis - dom the flames may have sent, That my soul great-er woe might be spared.
By the deep con-so - la - tion He brings for my fears, I am sure that my dear Sav - ior knows.

Refrain

Just to know that He knows, that my Lord un-der-stands, And His look of com-pas - sion to see;

Soothes the pain in my heart, is a balm for my wounds, Bring-ing com - fort and peace un-to me.
