

When You Have Done Your Best

It is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure. Php. 2:12-13

1. When you have done your best, Let Je - sus do the rest, He knows what's good for you;
2. 'Mid tri - als eve - ry day, Let Je - sus have His way, His love will com - fort you;
3. Though man - y storms a - rise, And dark - en all the skies, He'll let the sun - shine through;
4. He is a friend in - deed, He knows your eve - ry need, And He will fill it, too;

Still trust - ing, look a - bove And rest up - on His love, And see what He will do.
When might - y bil - lows sweep, As - sured that He will keep, Just see what He will do.
Press on and watch and pray, What - ev - er be the day, Just see what He will do.
When you have done your best, To Je - sus leave the rest, And see what He will do.

Refrain

Just trust Him and be true, And see what He will do, He'll nev - er dis - ap - point your soul;

When you have done your best, Let Je - sus do the rest, And keep your eyes up - on the goal.
