

A Little Farther

Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder...
And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed... not as I will, but as thou wilt. Mt. 26:36-39

1. Just be - fore His tri - al, Je - sus en - tered dark Geth - sem - a - ne;
2. See Him pray - ing, hear him groan - ing; death sweeps o'er Him like a flood;
3. Then at Pi - late's hall, be - hold Him, as the mob who mocked him cried,
4. Now He march - es to Gol - go - tha, scourged and thorn - crowned on the road;

Leav - ing eight out - side, took Pe - ter and two sons of Zeb - e - dee.
"Let this cup pass from me, Fa - ther"— sweat runs down as drops of blood!
"Away, a - way, give us Ba - rab - bas; let this Christ be cru - ci - fied!"
Bears the cross up - on His shoul - der, sinks be - neath the heav - y load!

Oh, the an - guish in the gar - den, as a - gain He left the three;
"Not my will, Lord, I will drink it: let Thy will be done in me."
O Ba - rab - bas, O Ba - rab - bas, Je - sus sure - ly died for thee,
Mocked, re - viled, by friends for - sa - ken— all for you, and all for me—
Refrain—Let us go a lit - tle far - ther, far - ther than we've gone be - fore;

D.S. Refrain

And He went a lit - tle far - ther, all the way to Cal - va - ry!
And He went a lit - tle far - ther, all the way to Cal - va - ry!
When He went a lit - tle far - ther, all the way to Cal - va - ry!
And He went a lit - tle far - ther, all the way to Cal - va - ry!
Are we work - ers now for Je - sus? Let us do a lit - tle more.
