

An Evening Prayer

*Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. Ps. 55:17
After this manner therefore pray ye: Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.... Mt. 6:9-13*

1. Great E - ter - nal God, Al - might - y, Hear our cry, dear Lord, we pray,
2. Through this day Thou now hast brought us, Kept us safe from death and harm;
3. If to - day, dear Lord, we failed Thee— In our weak - ness gone a - stray—
4. Help us, Lord, to al - ways fol - low In the paths where Thou dost lead;
5. So, dear Lord, we pray be with us That we some - day by Thy grace

The first system of music consists of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff, both in 4/4 time. The treble staff contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

As we turn our hearts to - ward Thee At the clos - ing of this day.
Now we pray that Thou wouldst hold us Through this night safe in Thine arm.
Oh, for - give us, Lord, and cleanse us, Wash our guilt and sin a - way.
Grant us un - der - stand - ing, wis - dom As Thy Ho - ly Word we read.
May a - bide with Thee for - ev - er In that ho - ly, heav'n - ly Place.

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It features the same treble and bass clef staves in 4/4 time, with the lyrics aligned under the notes.
