

Cast Thy Burden on the Lord

*Cast thy burden upon the Lord, and he shall sustain thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. Psa. 55:22
Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you. 1 Pet. 5:7*

1. Chris - tian, when thy way seems dark - est, And thine eyes with tears are dim,
2. Sym - pa - thy of friends may cheer thee, When the rag - ing storm is past,
3. Think how thy di - vine Re - deem - er Knows, as thou canst nev - er know,
4. All thy griefs by Him per - mit - ted, Need - ful is each one to thee;
5. For too well thy Sav - ior loves thee To al - low thy life to be

Straight to God, thy Fa - ther, hast'n - ing, Tell thy sor - rows un - to Him.
But God on - ly can con - sole thee, In the wild, ter - rif - ic blast.
All the deep - est depths of suf - f'ring, All the weight of hu - man woe.
All thy tears by Him are count - ed, One too much there can - not be.
One long, calm, un - brok - en sum - mer, One un - ruf - fled, storm - less sea.

Not to hu - man ear con - fid - ing Thy sad tale of grief and care,
Go with words, or tears, or si - lence, On - ly lay them at His feet:
And, though now in glo - ry seat - ed, He can hear thy fee - blest cry,
And if, while they fall so quick - ly, Thou canst own His way is right,
He would have thee fond - ly nes - tle, Clos - er to His lov - ing breast;

But, be - fore thy Fa - ther, kneel - ing, Pour out all thy sor - rows there.
Thou shalt prove how great His pit - y, And His ten - der - ness how sweet.
E - ven hear the sti - fled sigh - ings Of the dumb heart's ag - o - ny.
Then each bit - ter tear of an - guish, Pre - cious is in Je - sus' sight.
He would have that world seem bright - er, Where a - lone is per - fect rest.
