

Fair Zion

The people which sat in darkness saw great light. Mt. 4:16

Ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God. Heb. 12:22 I... saw the holy city... as a bride adorned. Rev. 21:2

1. O beau - ti - ful Zi - on, fair bride of the Lamb, Thy mar - vel - ous light we be - hold,
2. E - clipped was thy lus - ter by long pa - pal night, And dim - ly the dark cloud - y day
3. Thy light as the morn - ing breaks forth in the earth, Thy bright - ness all na - tions shall see;
4. O Zi - on, blest Zi - on, thy sun shall no more Go down in ob - scu - ri - ty's night;
5. E - ter - ni - ty's ag - es of bliss shall be thine, In re - gions un - cloud - ed a - bove;

Which shone on the na - tions en - shroud - ed by dark - ness, And mil - lions were bro't to thy fold.
Re - vealed thee to eyes that were ear - nest - ly search - ing For truth and the heav - en - ly way.
The ran - somed from Ba - bel are ea - ger - ly turn - ing With songs of re - joic - ing to thee.
From out thy per - fec - tion of beau - ty is shin - ing The rays of God's won - der - ful light.
And there shalt thou dwell ev - er - more with thy Mak - er, De - light - ing thy - self in His love.

Refrain

O Zi - on, fair Zi - on, thou church of the first - born, My heart in its rap - ture re - joic - es in thee; The an - gels in heav - en be - hold thee with won - der, Thou glo - ri - ous cit - y, thou home of the free.