

Father's Praying Ground

My God, let, I beseech thee, thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent unto the prayer that is made in this place. 2 Chr. 6:40

Pray without ceasing. 1 Th. 5:17

1. In this mod - ern - is - tic day, Some have strayed too far a - way From our
 2. Thro' the coun - try we would ride, With our chil - dren by our side, Trav - el - ing
 3. The old preach - er could hard - ly read, Still what he said sin - ners took heed, And would fa - ther's camp meet - ing, pray - ing ground; We used to fast and pray all day, And ask the thro' the storm and rain just the same; Go - ing to the house of the Lord, Where we would steal a - way and bow down; Some - times be - side an old oak tree, One would cry,

§

D.S.— Too far a - way some have strayed, Just now and Fine

Lord to have His way, Back there on our fa - ther's pray - ing ground.
 bow in sweet ac - cord, Sing - ing, "Come, ye that love the Lord, in Je - sus' name."
 "He spoke peace to me," Just be - fore day on our fa - ther's pray - ing ground.

then a soul is saved; Let us go back to our fa - ther's pray - ing ground.

Refrain D.S. al Fine

Let us go back to our fa - ther's pray - ing ground, God is not pleased, let us go back on bend - ed knees;