

Forward, Ever Forward

*Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,
I press toward the mark. Php. 3:13-14 In all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us. Rom. 8:37*

1. Joy - ful we walk on the King's high - way, For - ward, ev - er for - ward;
2. Christ, our Re - deem - er, shall lead the way On - ward, ev - er on - ward;
3. Cour - age, then, broth - er, our way doth lie Up - ward, ev - er up - ward;
4. Sure shall our foot - steps the path - way keep, Trust - ing, ev - er trust - ing;

High is our pur - pose and bright is the day, For - ward, ev - er for - ward.
Noth - ing our prog - ress to glo - ry shall stay, On - ward, ev - er on - ward.
On let us press to our home in the sky, Up - ward, ev - er up - ward.
O'er the ob - struc - tions we bold - ly shall leap, Trust - ing, ev - er trust - ing.

All to our Lord we will glad - ly yield, For by His Spir - it our hearts are sealed;
Fac - ing the foe with an ar - dor high, Ply - ing our wea - pons till he must fly;
Crowns are a - wait - ing us o - ver there, Glo - ries un - sul - lied that we may share;
Then when the day of this world is done, And in e - ter - ni - ty life be - gun,

In us His glo - ry shall be re - vealed, For - ward, ev - er for - ward.
Vic - t'ry in Je - sus shall be our cry, On - ward, ev - er on - ward.
Has - ten to win all those treas - ures rare, Up - ward, ev - er up - ward.
We shall re - mem - ber that it was won Trust - ing, ev - er trust - ing.
