

Gone to Return No More

He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more. Job 7:10

Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivest thy good things... but now... thou art tormented. Lk. 16:25

With expression

1. Think of your soul, poor sin - ner, to - day, In dread - ful dearth in sin's dark - est way;
 2. How can you die so hope - less of heav'n, When Je - sus' life on Cal - v'ry was giv'n?
 3. Think how e - ter - nal a - ges shall roll, And fier - y bil - lows sweep your poor soul

Can you be eas - y when aw - ful the cost?— Sink - ing still low - er to die and be lost.
 Bleed - ing and dy - ing, He pur - chased for all, Life and sal - va - tion—for you doth He call.
 Down to the re - gions of aw - ful de - spair, Ban - ished for - ev - er in mis - er - y there.

a tempo

How can you plead for mer - cy When He has shut to the door? How can you plead for Then do not grieve His Spir - it, Oh, let Him come in your heart; Then do not grieve His How can you be so thought - less, When time is so short, you know? How can you be so mer - cy?— Gone to re - turn no more, Gone to re - turn no more.

 Spir - it, Lest He for - e'er de - part, Lest He for - e'er de - part.
 thought - less? You must reap what you sow, You must reap what you sow.