

Good News to All

*The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel... to preach deliverance...
To preach the acceptable year of the Lord. Lk. 4:18-19*

1. Dear friends, we have pre-cious tid-ings of old, Would you re-ceive great-er rich-es than gold?
2. Won-der-ful grace we de-clare un-to you, Tru-ly we've test-ed and proved it is true,
3. Ye in-fi-dels that so bold-ly ap-pear, Deep in your bo-som you're can-kered with fear,
4. Is there a poor sin-ner pres-ent to-night Whose life is bit-ter and un-der a blight?

Hear it, all peo-ple, ye wealth-y and poor, Je-sus will give you His peace ev-er-more.
How great is sal-va-tion! tongue can-not tell, Sav-ing the soul from the pow-er of hell.
Come now to rea-son and hon-est in-tent, And God will par-don if ye will re-pent.
Should it be li-quer or gloom-y de-spair, Sure-ly our Sav-ior can turn it all fair.

Refrain

Good news, good news, We will sing and pro-claim tid-ings of re-deem-ing love;
Good news for all, good news,

Good news, good news, Full sal-va-tion for all, flow-ing from a-bove.
Good news for all, good news,
