

Hope

*We... have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:
Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast. Heb. 6:18-19; Col. 1:27*

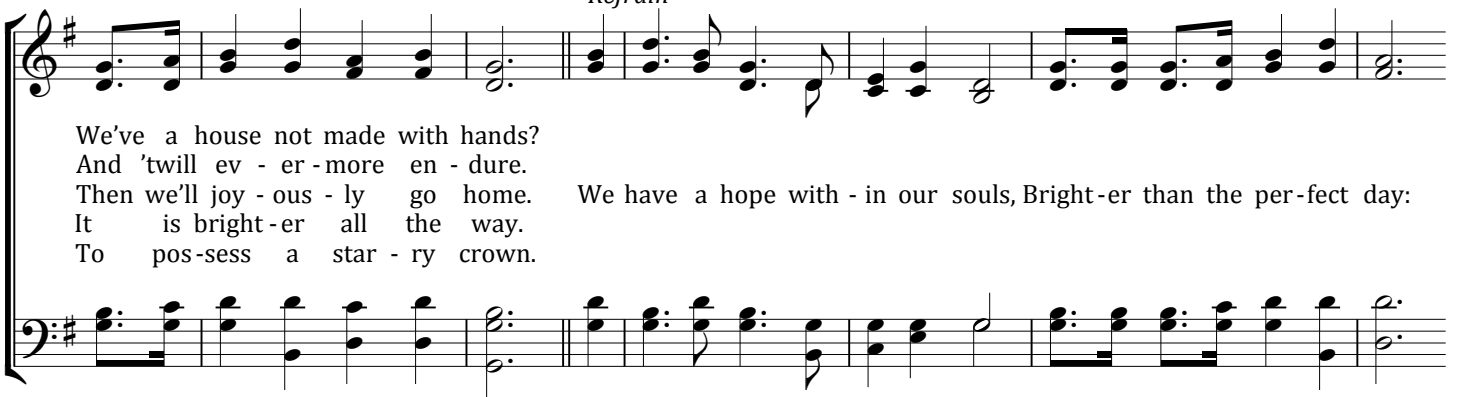

1. Have we an - y hope with - in us of a life be - yond the grave, In the
2. Bless - ed hope we have with - in us is an an - chor to the soul, It is
3. Hope has brought us through the dan - gers and temp - ta - tions of the past, And we
4. Since we've walked the strait and nar - row way our path has ev - er shone Bright - er,
5. Life will end in joy - ful sing - ing, "I have fought a faith - ful fight," Then we'll sweet and ver - nal lands? Do we know if this, our ta - ber - na - cle, were to be dis - solved, both stead - fast and sure; It is found - ed on the prom - is - es of Fa - ther's writ - en word, fear not those to come; By her bless - ings we'll go for - ward, while our mor - tal life shall last, bright - er, day by day; Hope with - in our hearts as - sures us it is bet - ter far - ther on, lay our ar - mor down; And our soul will break the ca - ble here, and take its hap - py flight,

Refrain

We've a house not made with hands?
And 'twill ev - er - more en - dure.
Then we'll joy - ous - ly go home. We have a hope with - in our souls, Bright - er than the per - fect day:
It is bright - er all the way.
To pos - sess a star - ry crown.

God has giv - en us His Spir - it, And we want the world to hear it, All the doubts are passed a - way.