

Joyful Meeting in Glory

My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning. Psa. 130:6

The watchman said, The morning cometh. Isa. 21:12

1. Tell me, watch-man, oh, what of the morn-ing Do you see as the mist clears a - way?
2. From the moun-tain of pure in - spi - ra - tion, See the gleam of e - ter - ni - ty rise;
3. 'Mid the rap - tur - ous glo - ries of heav-en, On im - mor - tal and beau - ti - ful plane,
4. Hal - le - lu - jah! How bless - ed the meet-ing, When we gath - er with Je - sus at home;

We be-hold in its splen-dor the dawn-ing Of a bright and glo - rious day.
With the ho - ly in sweet con - vo - ca - tion We shall soon u - nite in praise.
All the ran-somed will joy - ful - ly gath - er, Nev - er - more to part a - gain.
In the king - dom of love what a greet-ing Of the saints a - round the throne!

Refrain

We shall all gath-er home in the morn-ing, When the mist from the hills clears a - way;
clears a - way;

And it seems I can see by the dawn-ing, That we're near - ing the end of the way.
