

Little Star

He telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names. Psa. 147:4

There was... a multitude of the heavenly host... saying, Glory to God in the highest... peace, good will toward men. Lk. 2:13-14

1. How wise you look, lit - tle star, a - way Up yon - der in the sky;
2. I of - ten won - der if you were there When Christ lay in the stall;
3. If you had lis - tened on that night, Could you have heard the song
4. Oh, yes, a wise lit - tle star are you, Yet not a word to say;

How man - y years have you twin - kled there A - bove the world so high?
And if you saw, from your diz - zy height, The in - fant Lord of all.
That float - ed down on the mid - night air From that an - gel - ic throng?
You watch all night o'er the drows - y earth, And sleep all through the day.

Refrain

Lit - tle star, a - way up yon - der, Tell me, were you shin - ing then?

Did you hear the an - gels sing - ing, "Peace! Good - will to men"?
