

Only Jesus Satisfies

*What shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Mk. 8:36
I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. Php. 3:8*

1. If on the top - most point Of hon - or's heights I stand,
2. If I could e - ven gain The world, with all it gives,
3. If hu - man hands should wreathe Bright lau - rels for my brow,
4. Vain pleas - ure, pride, and gold, Naught in your stores I find

Or to the sum - mit mount Of fame and glo - ry grand,
And still should not ob - tain The life the Chris - tian lives,
Their prais - es, too, should breathe, Or at my feet should bow,
But fast de - cays to mold— All this I leave be - hind.

My soul were still un - sat - is - fied Till Je - sus' love in me a - bide.
What prof - it should I then con - trol? I'd gain the world, but lose my soul.
My va - cant heart would sigh un - til The Sav - ior came with grace to fill.
In Je - sus there is all I need— Wealth, pleas - ure, and a Friend in - deed.

WORDS: Clara M. Brooks, pub.1907. MUSIC: Clarence E. Hunter, pub.1907. Public Domain.