

Our Example

*Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus: Who... was made in the likeness of men:
And... humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross. Php. 2:5-8; 1 Pe. 2:21*

1. Je - sus left a home of daz-zling splen-dor, For this sin - ful world with sor - row dim;
2. Je - sus lived a life of self - de - ni - al With His vis - age marred by grief and woe;
3. If like Paul, we're cast in - to the pris - on, Or through burn - ing, fier - y flames should go,
4. Would we be dis - ci - ples of the Mas - ter, And the splen - dor of His man - sion share?

Hum - bly fill - ing the place of a ser - vant, And He calls us all to fol - low Him.
But now sits in the throne with the Fa - ther, And ex - am - ple leaves us here be - low.
Can we glo - ry in such per - se - cu - tion— Bear the im - age of our Lord be - low?
We must glad - ly en - dure trib - u - la - tion, Then a crown in heav - en we shall wear.

Refrain

Je - sus, we will fol - low in Thy foot - prints, Share Thy suf - fer - ing and shame and loss:

For the glo - ry that is set be - fore us, We will tri - umph in the Sav - ior's cross.
