

Pray the Clouds Away

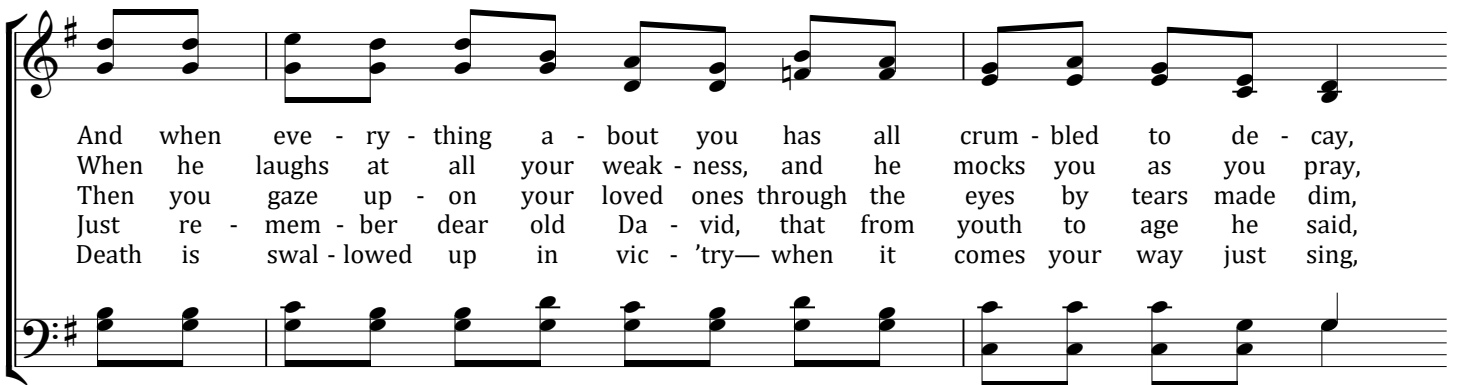

Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Php. 4:6-7

1. When you hear the thun - der boom - ing, when you see the light - ning flash,
2. When old Sa - tan keeps tor - ment - ing, tell - ing you a lot of lies,
3. Oth - er peo - ple seem to pros - per, while it seems God keeps you poor,
4. When the en - em - y keeps whis - p'ring that the Lord's for - got - ten you,
5. E - ven death it - self was con - quered by our Sav - ior on the tree;

When the cas - tles you have build - ed have all fal - len with a crash,
Then a - gain, it seems the shad - ows come to veil your sun - ny skies;
You can scarce - ly make ex - pens - es, keep the wolf back from the door;
When the poor - house and its ter - rors keep ap - pear - ing on the view,
He ex - posed its reign of ter - ror—made it harm - less as can be;

And when eve - ry - thing a - bout you has all crum - bled to de - cay,
When he laughs at all your weak - ness, and he mocks you as you pray,
Then you gaze up - on your loved ones through the eyes by tears made dim,
Just re - mem - ber dear old Da - vid, that from youth to age he said,
Death is swal - lowed up in vic - 'try— when it comes your way just sing,

If you'll just start right in pray - ing, you can pray the clouds a - way.
Once a - gain just start in pray - ing, and you'll pray the clouds a - way.
Think - ing of the need - ed com - forts— but their needs are known to Him.
"I've not seen the just for - sak - en, nor God's chil - dren beg - ging bread."
And you'll find it is a bluf - fer, since Christ took a - way its sting.
