

Profit and Loss

*What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mt. 16:26*

1. Here is a ques-tion up to all on the earth, Time will un - fold to young and old,
2. What will be-come of all your for - tune and land, Sil - ver and gold, rich - es un - told;
3. To buy a soul what would you give in ex-change? Sum up the whole, with - in your con-trol;
4. Stop just a mo-ment now and count up the cost, Look, and be - hold your fear - ful goal;
5. When you are ly - ing help - less, speech - less, and dumb, Sad to be - hold, life's sto - ry told;

What will your prof-it or your for-tune be worth, To gain all this world, then lose your soul (lose your soul)?
When you have made it all your pur-pose and aim To gain all this world, then lose your soul (lose your soul)?
If it were pos-si-ble, would you not ar-range To give all this world and save your soul (save your soul)?
Sur - ren - der now to Him that hung on the cross, Suf-fered and died to save your soul (save your soul).
When you like oth-er dy - ing mor-tals must come To leave all this word a help-less soul (help-less soul).

Refrain

What _____ will be your prof - it, To gain all this world, then lose your soul?
What will be your prof - it, What will be your prof - it, Oh,

What _____ will be your prof - it, To gain all this world, then lose your soul?
What will be your prof - it, What will be your prof - it, your soul?
