

Rush to the Rescue

Others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Jude 1:23

1. See the storm rag - ing in fu - ry to - day, Out on life's o - cean still drift - ing a - way;
2. See the dark wa - ters with waves roll - ing high? Wrecked on its bil - lows, the help - less now lie;
3. Come now with cour - age and brave the rough sea, Our trust - y Cap - tain will pi - lot for thee,
4. Do not de - spair for these poor, help - less souls, Driv - en by tem - pests 'mid break - ers and shoals;
5. Stand by the Cap - tain, oh, soul - sav - ing crew, Heed His com - mands, He will car - ry you thro';

Loved ones are tossed on the bil - lows, we know, Then rush to the res - cue and nev - er say no.
Who dare with cour - age to stem the strong tide, And rush to the res - cue with arms o - pen wide?
Save the poor souls that are lost in the dark, Then rush to the res - cue with God's might - y ark.
Hope may be lost on the bil - lows of woe, Then rush to the res - cue, tho' storm - y winds blow.
He will pro - tect you from dan - ger and harm, Then rush to the res - cue a - mid the wild storm.

Refrain

Rush to the res - cue! Rush to the res - cue! Rush to the res - cue though dan - ger be - tide;

Rush to the res - cue! Rush to the res - cue! Rush to the res - cue with arms o - pen wide.
