

Shall I Miss It?

What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?
or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mt. 16:26; Mk. 8:36-37

Solemn

1. "What will you give in ex-change for your soul?" What will it prof - it you, sin - ner,
2. "What will you give in ex-change for your soul?" Think of its va - lue, poor sin - ner,
3. "What will you give in ex-change for your soul?" Prof - it and loss are con - sid - ered;
4. "What will you give in ex-change for your soul?" Oh, do not sti - fle con - vic - tion;

p rit.

To gain the whole world and then lose your own soul? Shall I miss it— be lost for - ev - er?
Oh, can you af - ford to miss heav-en's bright goal, Nor share its sweet joys, no nev-er?
If you wreck on the shoal where the dark bil - lows roll, Your hope and your joys are bar-tered.
How can you thus tri - fle? Oh, come and be whole, And Je - sus will give re-mis-sion.

Refrain pp ff

Shall I miss it— be lost for - ev - er? Shall I miss it— be lost for - ev - er?

"Then, oh, what will you give in ex-change for your soul?" Shall I miss it— be lost for - ev - er?
