Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. Mt. 27:31-51; Mk. 15:37

1. Hushed is the wood - bird's note, si - lent her song of glee,
2. Pierced are those lov - ing hands which have so of - ten lain
3. Na - ture in sym - pa - thy trem - bles and hides her face,
4. Gaze on Him hang - ing there, know it was all for thee,

Shroud - ed in gloom the sun, shak - ing is Cal - va - ry;
Ten - der - ly on the sick, mak - ing them whole a - gain;
The ver - y hosts of ill fear and for - sake the place;
And that thy sin - ful deeds brought Him to Cal - va - ry;

Mute are the an - gel hosts, awed by the sight they see,
Bleed - ing His wound - ed feet, thorns are the crown He wears,
Of all ex - ist - ing things man looks in scorn a - lone,
Love for thy pre - cious soul caused Him to glad - ly die,

The might - y Son of God dies for hu - man - i - ty.
Thus on the cru - el cross man's load of sin He bears.
Feels no re - morse - ful pang, hard is his heart of stone.
That He might ran - som thee for that bright home on high.
