

The Dear Old Bible

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. Psa. 119:105

1. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as my guide each day, Be it my help and com-fort on my
2. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as my teach - er true, Pre-cious the words of prom-ise, old, yet
3. Give me the dear old Bi-ble as a shin - ing light, That will il - lu - mine me and guide my 4. Give me the dear old Bi-ble when my life shall end, When in the vale of shad-ow it will pil - grim way, Un - til the gates of glo - ry I at last shall see, The dear old ev - er new; On eve - ry page the love of God I plain - ly see, The dear old steps a - right, Be it my sword to drive a - way the en - e - my, The dear old com - fort lend; It shall en - dure for time and all e - ter - ni - ty, The dear old

Bi - ble is good e-nough for me. Good e-nough for me, is good e - nough for me, yes, it is yes, good e-nough for me, The dear old Bi - ble is good e-nough for me;

is good e - nough for me;

Good e-nough for me, good e-nough for me, The dear old Bi-ble is good e-nough for me.
yes, is good e-nough for me.
