

The House of God

*The house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. 1 Tim. 3:15
In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit. Eph. 2:18-22; 1 Pet. 2:5-6*

1. The house of God, built by His hands, Tri - um - phant through the a - ges stands
2. The Lamb of God, Him-self the door, Ex - cludes all sin for - ev - er - more;
3. The Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost Are one with all the ran - somed host,

Up - on the rock for - ev - er fast, De - fy - ing Sa - tan's fier - y blast.
His life to build this house He gave, And eve - ry soul He wills to save.
Whodwell in touch with heav'n a - bove, In Fa - ther's house, where all is love.

Sal - va - tion forms its mas - sive wall, 'Twill stand while creeds and schi - sms fall;
In heav - en's gold - en book of life, In - scribed a - bove all sin and strife,
O house of God, thou spot - less place, Where beams the light of heav - en's grace;

And all with - in its por - tals bright Are robbed in heav - en's gold - en light.
There hu - man hands can ne'er e - rase The names of those re - deemed by grace.
With - in thy courts, oh, let me stay, Where all is bright e - ter - nal day.
