

The Safe Retreat

*The Lord... will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble. Psa. 9:9
I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, Lord, only makest me dwell in safety. 4:8*

1. When the storm clouds rise and the sky is dark, When op-pressed with anx - ious care;
2. When the light - nings flash and the thun - ders roll, And the storms in fu - ry beat;
3. Soon the storms will pass and the sky will clear, And my rest be calm and sweet;

I've a safe re - treat in the strong, high tow'r, For no ill can e'er harm me there.
When they seem so sure to en - gulf my soul, Then I hide in the safe re - treat.
I will trust and wait with no anx - ious fear, For I hide in the safe re - treat.

Refrain

I will hide in the safe re - treat, I will hide in the safe re - treat;
I will hide, I will hide in the safe re - treat, I will hide, I will hide in the safe re - treat;

When the storm clouds fly till they pass me by I will hide in the safe re - treat.
