

The Wonderful Change

We all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord. 2 Cor. 3:18

1. All weights are gone, my heart is light, My scar - let robes are changed to white;
2. Where pas - sions reigned and tem - pers foamed, Now Je - sus sits in love en - throned;
3. Oh, won - drous grace, how great the change! My soul now takes her joy - ful range,
4. The gild - ed glo - ry of this world E - clipsed, and in - to noth - ing hurled,

Oh, praise the Lord! I need no more My load of sin and guilt de - plore.
No dregs of car - nal strife are found, But hope, and love, and peace a - bound.
'Mid scenes of beau - ty in the light, Where all be - fore was gloom - y night.
Be - fore the su - per - ex - cel - lence Of Heav - en's peace and right - eous - ness.

Refrain

Oh, I am saved _____ in Je - sus' blood, _____ My soul is hap - py now in God; _____

Oh, glo - ry, glo - ry! Can it be _____ The Prince of Peace has come to me!