

'Tis Good to Live in Canaan

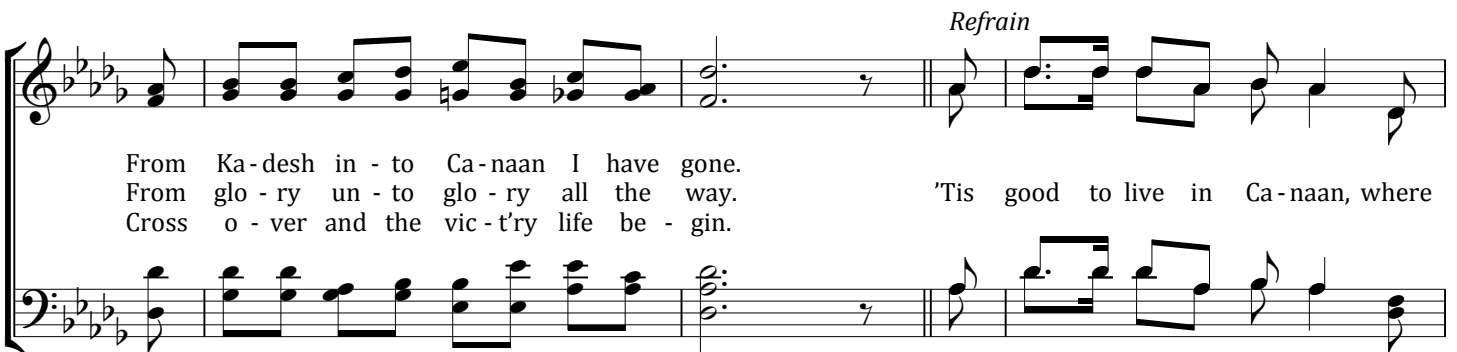

They came unto the brook of Eshcol, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bare it between two... and said, We came unto the land... and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it. Num. 13:23,27

1. I heard God's voice com-mand-ing, "Go up, the land pos-sess," And trust-ing in His
2. The land I'm now ex-plor-ing and get-ting far-ther in, And tent-ing toward the
3. This land of peace and plen-ty is yours by faith to claim; There's per-fect love and grace I fol-lowed on; From E-gypt's cru-el bond-age and from the wil-der-ness, high-lands eve-ry day; Still far-ther from the low-lands of un-be-lief and sin, rest from in-bred sin; Its moun-tain heights pos-sess-ing through faith in Je-sus' name,

Refrain

From Ka-desh in-to Ca-naan I have gone.
From glo-ry un-to glo-ry all the way. 'Tis good to live in Ca-naan, where Cross o-ver and the vic-t'ry life be-gin.

grapes of Esh-col grow; 'Tis good to live in Ca-naan, where milk and hon-ey flow;

'Tis good to live in Ca-naan and full sal-va-tion know, I find it's good to live in Ca-naan.
