

Truth Divine

*Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God... which keepeth truth for ever. Psa. 146:5-6
Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. 1 Pet. 1:23*

1. Truth di - vine, by an - gels spo - ken, Clothed in strains of mu - sic grand;
2. Truth di - vine, we own its Au - thor, Mak - er of e - ter - nal things;
3. We Thy coun - sel, Lord, have tak - en, Creeds are crum - bling 'neath our feet:
4. God of love, we meek - ly pray Thee, Light and life to us im - part:

Like a chain with links un - bro - ken, Like a rock on which we stand.
Praise to Him we glad - ly of - fer For the hope and grace it brings.
Here we stand, by sin un - shak - en, Here we reign in grace com - plete.
Un - con - demned, we will o - bey Thee, Dwell Thou ev - er in our heart.
