We Will Reap What We Sow

Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. Gal. 6:7

1. There is coming a day when a reaping will be, And all men every thick;
   where will have to share;
   What they've sown long ago will surely sprout and grow,
   And some-day in the future will bring joy or bring woe.
   Oh, dear souls, take this warning for we'll reap what we sow.
   God knows all, and remember, we will reap what we sow.
   So be careful, dear ones, what kind of seeds you sow, Lest some-day there will be sad regrets and misery.
   Be careful, I say, what kind of seed you sow today,

2. Many thorns here are sown that will prick tender hearts, But, be sure, there's a reaping day to come;
   reaping day to come;
   Bit-ter reaping 'twill be and like an ad-der sting—
   And some-day you will weep when you reap what you sow.
   God knows all, and re-member, we will reap what we sow.
   God sees all, and re-member, we will reap what we sow.
   D.S.—Lest some-day you will weep when you reap what you sow.

3. When you think to do wrong, know that God on His throne Sees and hears every thing you do or say;
   thing you do or say;
   Not one thing can go by from His all-seeing eye,
   And some-day in the future will bring joy or bring woe.
   Oh, dear souls, take this warning for we'll reap what we sow.
   God knows all, and remember, we will reap what we sow.
   So be careful, dear ones, what kind of seeds you sow, Lest some-day there will be sad regrets and misery.
   Be careful, I say, what kind of seed you sow today,

4. We will reap seeds we've sown, they'll bring tears or bring joy, Have you brought grief to some kind, loving heart?
   Or have you sown some love, and pointed souls above?
