

Where Shall I Go?

It is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment. Heb. 9:27

1. E - ter - ni - ty draws near As time moves on; When earth shall dis - ap - pear
2. Soon will the Lord ap - pear With trum - pet sound, Fill - ing the lost with fear,
3. When the sun shine no more, No hope in sight; Gone from this earth - ly shore

I shall have gone Out in the great un - known To reap what I have sown;
Shak - ing the ground; Up from their si - lent bed Rais - ing the sleep - ing dead;
Where all is night, Down where dark bil - lows roll— Lost, lost, my pre - cious soul!

Refrain
Sum - moned be - fore the throne, Then, where shall I go?
Sin - ners the sight will dread—Where shall I be found? Where shall I go?
Nev - er to reach that goal In heav - en so bright.

Where shall I go? From the great judg - ment seat, Where shall I go?
