

Working and Waiting

*So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward,
Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. Mt. 20:8*

1. Work - ing for the Mas - ter in the har - vest field, Paus - ing not for wear - i - ness or pain!
2. Work - ing in the vine - yard, toil - ing for the Lord, Faith - ful - ly from dawn to set of sun;
3. Wait - ing for the Mas - ter in the Beu - lah Land, Wait - ing till the wel - come sum - mons come,
4. Wait - ing for the Mas - ter by the riv - er's side, Wait - ing, watch - ing for the boat - man pale,

Joy - ful in His ser - vice, I the sic - kle wield, Gath - ring pre - cious sheaves of gold - en grain.
Sweet will be the rest - ing, rich be my re - ward, When to me my Lord shall say, "Well done."
Bid - ding me cross o - ver to the dis - tant strand, There to dwell with Him in bliss at home.
Who will safe - ly bear me o'er the wa - ters wide, To the peace - ful port with - in the veil.

Refrain

Work - ing, work - ing, Work - ing till the time of rest shall come;
Work - ing, work - ing, work - ing, work - ing,

Wait - ing, wait - ing, Wait - ing till the Lord shall call me home.
Wait - ing, wait - ing, wait - ing, wait - ing,
